BRITISH LOSS

Boer General Delarey's Men in Fierce Attack on English Kill and Wound 174.

startled by the receipt of news of losses within forty miles of the Gold field.

Durban-Johannesburg Railroad, reported by Lord Kitchener to-day, is Gen. Clements's reverse at Magalies- vere fighting. burg. It shows Gen. Delarey is in no way daunted by the capture of eleven of his guns by Gen. Babington

The garrison of Vladfontein, ap. Four officers were killed."

LONDON, May 31 .- On the anni- | parently largely composed of Yeo-Persory of Lord Roberts's entry into manry, had one hundred and seven-ne most serious engagement since | 1. Delarey's forces and there was se killed and wounded numbered 174.

FOUND SISTER AFTER YEARS.

Marjorie King, Long Lost, Meets Her Brother on the Bowery.

respectable citizen of the

There arrived in New York yesterday William King by name and a boatman He roamed about the city until nightfall and then shaped his was haggard and her eyes were red. A drooping hat rested well down on her from your home in Rondout six years forehead and a rainy day costume set ago." off a figure that even the Bowery had "You're right," placidly remarked the not robbed of grace. It is easy to make girl, "and I suppose you're my brother acquaintances on the Bowery, and ere Bill. I thought I knew that scar." long the youth from Rondout was drinking and chatting with the girl of the brother, grasping her arm and hurrying

They went to other concert halls, and place and come home." midnight found them in the back room "Till never go home," screamed the of a saloon in Market street. The girl girl, resisting with all her strength. drank and smoked clearettes and grew "What would I do at home? I'll never sentimental. The youth was maudin go back. I don't want to see them, I "That scar on your head there," she tell you. Let me go."

of the Bowery was his sister and he "What's your name?" asked the struck her. She struck him, and in a Rondout youth, sitting up and looking moment they were fighting and cursing

"Marjorie McDermott," was the re-ply, "but of course that ain't my right in Essex Market Court this morning a

The Rondout youth arose. The liquor Neither was able to pay, and they were

SCHOONER'S LOC

The brother made a final appeal in Till tell you your real name." he said. court, but the girl persisted in her re NEW MOVE BY

COV. M'SWEENEY RECORDS COME

ignation of Tillman and McLaurin.

(Special to The Evening World.) astions of United States Senators Ben- in port to-day.

action of the Executive, while tude 10.40, longitude 79.30.

Refuses to Accept Res- Had Long, Narrow Tail and Was Visible for Several Nights.

her to the street, "Come out of this of the Bowery was his sister and he fine of $2 was imposed upon each

COLUMBIA, S. C., May 31.—Gov. Mecontent with a long, narrow tail. So affirms the veracious keeper of the log the would not accept the tendered resignorm of the schooner Florida, which arrived

Harry Wood Overcome in a Coney

amin R. Tillman and John McLaurin.

The State is sick of polities," said the schooner on the evening of May 8, shortly before 7 o'clock. It hung low in the southwestern skies, about five or gas at the Griffin Hotel, corner of the southwestern skies, about five or gas at the Griffin Hotel, corner of the sedion of the Executive, while to the people, for the Senatorial campaign to be the people in orderly fashion; and Tiliman agreed to reason as the result of personance and to stump aderense of their claims.

The comet was again visible on May 13 in the constellation of Orion, but was a considerable and the state of personance of their claims.

HURTIG'S HOME TELEPHONE; IN BIG FIGHT. A MERRY "HELLO!" COMEDY.

There is sorrow in Harlem-that is in Wife of Harlem Manaenshrouded in gloom, which hangs over it like a funeral pall. Where once light-hearted, sprightly man dashed in shadow making periodical trips to the k Seemon's Harlem Music Hall. Every

the rain-and love of his wife. All last said Mr. Hurtig one night last week, Although half of the plaster was "Isn't it so most of D.

ger Had a "Lovely," Instrumentand When working order, Mrs. Hurtig never com-oing herself up with pillows, Mrs. Hur wife. Early yesterday morning the tive would so become her sister-in-law. men came to install the instrument. She was compelled to ring off for Mr. Hurtig selected his wife's boudoir went of breath. For the second round ing be had from the telephone company. Mr. Hurtig selected his wife's boudoir want of breath. For the select, Mrs. as the best place for it and then rushed she called up her own sister, Mrs. Emma Wilson, who lives in Richmond, found she had also 184 calls to Jersey "You won't even have to come down- Va. This call only lasted thirty-five City and only seventy-four to Brooklyn stairs, Sadle," he yelled upstairs. "Now minutes, but she held out the reassur- To-day workmen were busy taking out

Sociable Day at the "Ben's" birthday and told him of all "Ben" Came Home asked if Max had ever seen it. When he said no. Mrs. Hurtig told him in He Almost Collapsed. detail of each act and even sang th musical numbers to him, including

"Who's paying for all this!" said Mar after a talk of forty-five minutes.

Then Mrs. Hurtig attempted to talk with her brother, who is an enlisted soldier in the Philippines and statione cause she knew no one in Australia.

For once the telephone came in hands "Mr. Hurtig has fainted."

With difficulty Mr. Hurtig was re remember, use it all you want to and order the dinner over the 'phone."

Although half of the plaster was "Isn't it so good of Ben," Mrs. Hurtig curtailed.

KILLED HIMSELF MORE DELAY IN LETTERS FAKES FOR 15 DOLLARS STANLEY CASE.

Picked Up at Ocean Grove.

A letter picked up in Ocean Grove, Charles Brown, commander of E. A. S. J., this morning and addressed to Stevens Naval Post, committed suicide Thomas Edison, Liewellyn Park, Orange, by shooting to-day at his home, No. 202 apartments, at No. 730 Ninth avenue J., and which was inclosed in a made Bloomfield street. Hoboken.

of late are fakes. It all began in the several of his friends and tried to bor- Wednesday of next week at the request back room of a well-known saloon on row $15, explaining that he wanted to of Assistant District-Attorney Garvan, Broad street, Newark. It is a practical pay it to the insurance company. When joke throughout. The persons impli-cated are well-to-do, and if discovered ou will be somewhat surprised.

"A FRIEND."

It is believed that the letter, which is evidently in a disguised hand, was dropped yesterday by a Newark excursionist.

DEAD FROM EFFECTS OF GAS.

Contents of a Letter Brown Wart d It to Masseur Must Await Make Good His Accounts.

To Mr. Edison.
"Do not fear, the kidnapping letters This morning, it is said, he went to pay it to the insurance company. When he found that he could not raise the sum he went back to his home and sent

TOOK TOO MUCH OPIUM.

Analysis of Father

the body of Father Phillips, of Hazelton

The hearing was postponed until the tendered residual control of the schooler Florida, which arrived in port today.

Island Blotter in the event of May 5, and 1 blotter changes in the control of the schooler floridal port today.

Island Blotter in the event of May 5, and 1 blotter changes in the schooler floridal port today.

Island Blotter in the event of May 5, and 1 blotter changes in the schooler floridal port today.

Island Blotter in the event of May 6, and 1 blotter changes in the schooler floridal port today.

Island Blotter in the event of May 6, and 1 blotter changes in the schooler floridal port today.

Island Blotter in the event of May 6, and 1 blotter changes in the schooler floridal port today.

Island Blotter in the event of May 6, and 1 blotter changes in the schooler floridal port today.

Island Blotter in the event of May 6, and 1 blotter changes in the schooler floridal port today.

Island Blotter in the church to the Clyce floridal port today.

Island Blotter in the church of the Drug flow of No. 63 Jefferson street, Brooking, and blooked here yested docked here yested yes deviced were to the schooler floridal port today.

Island Blotter in the church to the Clyce flow of No. 63 Jefferson street, Brooking of No. 63 Jefferson street, Brooking, and blooked here yested yes deviced were to the schooler flow of the shooler of the schooler of opin at a first degree above the horizon, in latified as a forty before in chooked here yested yes deviced were to the schooler of the sch

Phillips's Viscera.

N. J., and which was inclosed in a made Bloomfield street, Hoboken.

Brown was an agent for the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, and politan Life Insurance Company, and after the parade yesterday treated the Coroner's Office to-day.

have their ideals shattered before the of Assistant District-Attorney Garvan, who said that by that time Prof. Ferguson, who is making a chemical analysis of the principle of the pr sum he went back to his home and sent a builet into his head.

Bibwa was a veteran, not only of the civil war, but of the France-Prussian war as well. He had also seen much service in revolutions in South America. He had been in the insurance business about three years. He was sixty-seven years old, a widower and had no family.

of the priest's internal organs, would have completed his work.

Attorneys Levy and Unger, who appeared for Stanley, protested against the delay and wanted their client released, but Coroner Bausch refused to entertain their request.

Three days ago the prisoner at the bar and the beautiful young girl that stood beside him were married. They DELAWARE RIVER SUICIDE.

hurried from the church to the Clyde

ment now going on. H. ZEITZ

A DETECTIVE.

Mulcare, of Titus' Staff, Saved Walling from Drowning.

Of all the thousands who were watchng the exciting finish of the junior ig,ht-oared contest in the Harlem River regatta yesterday afternoon, but one mian aw Thomas Walling fall into the water and make frantic efforts to save himrelf. This one man was Detective Bergeant Mulcare, of Capt. Titus's staff. and to his watchfulners Walling owes

The guests' barge of the Nonparell Rowing Club was anchored just above Washington Bridge, and among the guests was Walling. When he slipped verboard those on the barge were too xcited to notice his mishap and the cheers drowned his cries for help. Mulcare, who was in charge of a palice launch, saw Walling fall in soon realized that the man was unable to regain the barge. Just as the launch reached the barge Walling released his hold and went under. Mulcare made a despairing grab, connected with the back of Walling's neck and pulled him aboard, unconecious. Wailing was resuscitated at a neighboring road-house and Mulcare was

MADURO BROTHERS & CO.

Dissolution and Reorganization Sale.

An opportunity seldom offered to purchasers of thorough, up-to-date

CLOTHING and HABERDASHERY.

well assorted. We advise the knowing ones to come early in the morning or late in the evening.

inattention during the rush early this week. We

ORIGINAL have more clerks now and can attend to each cus- SEASON'S

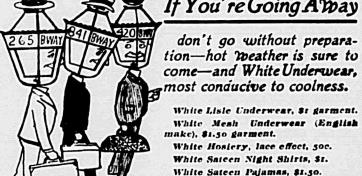

ONE HALF Accept our apologies for any late deliveries or PRICES. tomer's wants to his entire satisfaction.

The stock is an enormous one and is still

On Second Attempt Blaze Is Started in Two Places.

THIRD

Hackett, Carhart & Co.

ARREST ECLIPSES H. ZEITZ GLAD HONEYMOON

Charges of Forgery Met Bridegroom Upon His Arrival from Savannah.

With most married women the awak- of a few days. She broke down and ening from love's young dream is a wept hysterically, but with the charac- his life. teristic fortitude of Southern women she mercifully protracted experience. Few plucked up courage. "I'll not believe that John is a forger." honeymoon is ended. One of these is she said, and to prove that she really

This morning she was at her husband's side when he appeared in court. Her beautiful eyes were dark from weeping, but she held command over herself. "I certainly believe my husband is innocent," she said. "But guilty or innocent I will stand by him. I can't cry now, I am too mad and hurt for that, solicit charge accounts and accept payments either weekly or monthly. Pay us one dollar per week and we place at your disposal a line of clothing for men, women and children; hats, shoes and millinery. Special sale in every depart-

NEW

GOODS.

THIS